

Job Title: Mid-Weight Designer (Freelance, 3-4 Days Per Week)

Location: Notting Hill, London, UK

Job Description

We have an exciting opportunity for a talented Mid-Weight Interior Designer with a minimum of four years' experience to join our in-house design and project management team at Public House Group on a freelance basis for three to four days a week, with the opportunity to transition into a full-time role for the right candidate.

Following the successful opening of The Hero to much acclaim and the most recent Canteen in Portobello Road, we are gearing up for several highly anticipated hospitality projects that you can be a part of. This is a unique chance to work on some of the most talked-about luxury restaurant openings in the UK.

In this role, you will work closely with the Lead Designer and Project Manager to help deliver exceptional high-end hospitality projects. We are seeking an individual who has experience in crafting luxury environments but is not necessarily from a commercial design background.

Day Rate

The day rate for this position is based on a pro-rata calculation of a £38K – £40K annual salary.

Key Responsibilities

Design Leadership

- Manage in int the team interior design projects of various sizes and budgets, from concept through to completion.
- Ensure each project aligns with the restaurant brand's DNA and vision. - Collaborate with external design teams, project managers, consultants, contractors, and suppliers to deliver on project goals.
- Oversee project timelines to ensure timely delivery without compromising quality. Creative Contribution

- Develop design presentations, drawings, and detailed specifications, ensuring all aspects of the project are meticulously planned.
- Design and create bespoke furniture, contributing to the unique identity of each venue.

- Maintain a strong understanding of suppliers and manufacturing techniques to ensure the highest standards of craftsmanship.

Project Execution

- Prepare and maintain detailed specifications and schedules for each project. - Participate in discussions with external and internal teams, ensuring cohesive design execution across all levels.
- Balance multiple projects, ensuring timely and cost-effective delivery. What We're Looking For

Experience & Skills

- Minimum of two years' post-qualification experience in high-end design, with a proven track record of managing projects from inception to completion independently. - Exceptional eye for detail, with a strong understanding of colour theory, materials, and finishes.
- Knowledgeable in sourcing and working with suppliers, contractors, and manufacturers to bring custom designs to life.
- Proficiency in AutoCAD, SketchUp, and Microsoft Office Suite is essential.
- Strong hand sketching skills are a bonus.

Personal Attributes

- Creative, organised, and efficient, with the ability to manage multiple projects in a dynamic, fast-paced environment.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills, both in-person and virtually, to effectively collaborate with teams and present ideas to stakeholders. - Able to work independently, as part of a team, or with senior management to deliver exceptional design solutions.

Why Join Us

This is a rare opportunity to work on some of the most exciting and high-profile hospitality projects in the UK. With new venues in development, your work will directly influence the future of our brand and help shape the evolving landscape of luxury hospitality design.

For more information about our brand and current projects, check out our Instagram channels:

- @thebullcharlbury
- @thepelican_W11
- @thehero_W9
- @canteen_310
- @publichousegroup

Please send a portfolio and CV to leticia@publichousegroup.com