We're Hiring....

Sales Associate

We are looking for an articulate and outgoing Sales Associate to join our small, friendly team at our Pimlico Road showroom. You will have a sparkle and be able to interact with clients with enthusiasm and convey the beauty and comfort of our handmade upholstery.

You'll have had experience of our sector already and have existing contacts within the Interior Design Community. You'll be excited to learn new things, share our love of fine furniture making as well as contribute to the growth of a renowned family business.

This is more than Sales, this is a varied position, although predominantly helping service our existing Private and Interior Design clients, you will be able to become involved in Marketing, Events, Styling and Design. We assist most of our clients with elements of design in their homes as well as offer outstanding solutions to the Interior Designers we make for.

You will be computer literate, punctual, reliable, able to use your initiative and be quick thinking. You will be looking for a fresh challenge and a business you can grow within and prove yourselves. This position comes with the usual benefits but also a clearly mapped-out progressive future if you so wish.

We look forward to hearing from you. A covering letter explaining what sets you apart from the rest and a CV to london@theoddchaircompany.com
