

PETER MIKIC

STUDIO

Senior FF&E Designer – Fixed-Term Maternity Cover

Location: Shoreditch

Peter Mikic Studio is seeking a talented and enthusiastic Senior FF&E Designer to join our dynamic Shoreditch-based team on a fixed-term maternity cover contract.

Our studio specialises in high-end interior design across luxury private residences, yachts, hotels, bars, and restaurants, delivering exceptional projects both locally and internationally. We are a vibrant collective of Architects and Interior Designers who take pride in fostering a collaborative and inspiring work environment.

The Role & Responsibilities

As a Senior FF&E Designer, you will play a key role in leading multiple projects, ensuring seamless delivery and outstanding client service. Your responsibilities will include:

- Leading FF&E projects with the support of junior team members.
- Acting as the primary point of contact for clients, project managers, and suppliers.
- Managing client meetings with professionalism and confidence.
- Coordinating contractors, suppliers, and services to ensure timely project completion.
- Preparing mood boards, fabric schemes, and presentations.
- Sourcing furniture, antiques, and artwork.
- Designing bespoke furniture, including case goods, upholstery, and lighting.
- Developing detailed specifications and schedules.
- Creating and managing project budgets.
- Overseeing the procurement process for all FF&E elements.
- Upholding our studio's values and ensuring a seamless client experience.
- Setting project timelines and ensuring deadlines are met.

This role will also require occasional national and international travel.

Key Skills & Attributes

We are looking for an experienced and passionate designer with the following:

- 5+ years of post-qualification experience in delivering high-end residential FF&E projects from concept to completion.
- An exceptional eye for detail, colour, and antiques.
- Strong organisational and project management skills.

PETER MIKIC

STUDIO

- Proficiency in AutoCAD, Adobe Suite, Google Workspace, and Microsoft Office Suite. Experience with Estimote is a plus.
- The ability to work confidently and discreetly with high-profile clients.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills, with the ability to liaise effectively with clients, sub-contractors, and architects.
- A collaborative and leadership-oriented mindset, with a passion for mentoring junior team members.

What We're Looking For

We need someone who can hit the ground running, balancing multiple projects with efficiency and flair. You should be patient, friendly, and exceptionally well-organised, with a deep understanding of various design styles to draw from for different projects.

If you're a talented Senior FF&E Designer looking for an exciting opportunity in a creative and supportive studio, we'd love to hear from you!
