

MID-WEIGHT INTERIOR DESIGNER

An opportunity to join a fantastic small studio based near Kings Cross, working across a wide range of private residential projects. Covering all aspects of design, from concept through to completion, Lomax & Chi provides a range of bespoke services to meet their clients' needs. We are working on some fantastic & eclectic projects and are looking for the right designer to join our team, be it part or full time.

Role & Responsibilities

- Working on projects across all stages, from concept through to completion, from the design and administration to site visits and final installation.
- Assist with design intent and concept development stages.
- Assist with FF&E specification, selection, pricing, procurement, and documentation.
- Create digital mood boards, presentations, and concept designs.
- Assist with technical drawings for issue to clients, contractors and joiners using Vectorworks.
- Attending on-site meetings with clients and relevant contractors where relevant.
- Ensure administrative records are maintained and accurate.
- Liaise with external contacts, suppliers, contractors, etc.

Required Skills & Experience

- Experience: Minimum of 4 years' experience working in a professional design studio within Interior Architecture & FF&E. A knowledge of, and passion for interior design.
- Communication: Experience liaising with clients and third parties, a confident and friendly person with great communication skills and a positive demeanor.
- Technical skills: Proficiency in Vectorworks, Excel and Adobe Suite. Knowledge of SketchUp great but not essential.
- Organisation Skills: Highly organized with excellent attention to detail.

What you get back

- Salary will be based on experience
- Holiday of 20 days per year + bank holidays
- Good work-life balance and potential for remote working
- Modern studio with good facilities and within a good location for commuting
- Working hours of 9-6pm.

If you would like to apply for this role, please send your CV, portfolio of recent work and a cover letter (with your salary expectations) to info@lomaxandchi.com with the subject 'Interior Design Position'

